

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1897. ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

By Electric Light!

Friday noon Mr. Gibson handed us the following telegram: Cincinnati, O., Oct. 15th, 1897.

Hechinger & Co., Maysville, Ky.—Make cash offer on what we have left of such styles as you bought early this season. BLANK & CO.

At the request of the house, one of the largest in Cincinnati, we omit the name. Mr. Gibson has original telegram. We wired back "Our Mr. D. Hechinger will come down on the 3:35 train." He came, saw and conquered. We discovered that the house that owned the goods was anxious to realize on them. By electric light, inside of 90 minutes, we made the purchase of our business career. The goods are now in transit, and will be on our counters Wednesday morning.

They Were Bought for Cash!

They Will Be Sold for CASH!

The prices will be a revelation to bargain seekers. See window display Wednesday morning. We will then tell you more about them.

Have you seen the late arrivals in our Shoe window? None like them in Northeastern Kentucky. If you are fond of a good-fitting Shoe, and with it perfect comfort, come in and try on a pair.

HER TROUBLE.

I met a pretty maiden
Whose eyes were wet and red;
I sought to lend her sympathy,
And tenderly I said:
"Pray, tell me of your trouble,
That I may help you bear it;
Some heavy sorrow weighs you down,
And, oh, I fain would share it."

"Some friend, perchance, has left you—
Some well-loved one is dead;
You look back through the mist of tears
At happy moments fled!
Or has some one deceived you—
Some heartless man and cruel?
Oh, let me know his name, that I
May meet him in a duel!"

She took her little kerchief
And wiped her tears away,
And then, as I stood waiting, she
At length contrived to say:
"I've lost do feed dog have I
But eddy gay deceiver:
The trouble with be is that I
Have got the blabed hay fever."

The Preachers' enemy has been killed. While hunting yesterday on the farm of Mr. Early Worick near Dexter Mr. I. M. Lane killed a large hawk, measuring four feet from tip to tip of wings. This is no fish story, but go to John Wheeler's and see for yourself.

A merry Church party was to have gone to Ruggles Campgrounds today, but the rain interfered. The Pastor had his appetite in good shape for chicken. Ike Lane had counted the squirrels in advance, and the ladies had provided steen baskets to hold the hickory nuts.

BAD W. W. TEA!

A Matter That May Interest a Whole Lot of Maysville People.

At Columbus, O., State Food Commissioner Blackburn ordered the arrest of W. W. Thomas, Manager of the People's Tea, Spice and Baking Powder Company of Cincinnati.

This was done on a sample of tea sent to the agent in Salem to be sold, and which was found to be about 90 per cent. of charred straw.

This man Thomas has been arrested a number of times for selling spurious goods, and yet there are scores of people in Maysville who buy his stuff because it is "cheap," and because he gives a "prize" for the privilege of poisoning them.

MET AND MADE UP.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harris Are Again Living Together at Lexington.

Jacob F. Harris, who killed Thomas H. Merritt in Gratz Park at Lexington on July 9th while Merritt was seated on a bench beside his wife, and who was acquitted by City Judge Falconer's construction of the law, has returned to Lexington and is now living with his family on High street.

Harris was last week summoned to the office of E. H. Ross, who was Mrs. Harris's Attorney.

There he met his wife, who threw her arms about his neck upon his entering the room and begged his forgiveness.

A reconciliation was made at once, and now the couple are living together.

Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham of Gaars Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz.: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

HOME RULE.

An Amendment Allowing Cities to Regulate Their Own Taxes.

Every person should vote "Yes" on the following proposed amendment to the Constitution.

Its adoption will give cities the right to regulate their own taxing affairs, and enable them to provide money for internal improvements.

The proposed amendment is as follows, and THE LEDGER shows how it will appear on the ballot, and where the voter ought to put his X mark:

The General Assembly may, by general laws, provide for taxation by municipalities of property other than lands and improvements thereon, based on income, licenses or franchises, which may be either in addition to or in lieu of ad valorem taxes thereon.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form. —The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Tobacco Insurance—John C. Everett.

Daniel Sprague, an old colored employee of the White House and the body servant of President Garfield, died, aged 60 years. He went to Washington with Garfield from Ohio in 1881 and tended him during his last illness. After Garfield's death he was retained as a servant at the White House, and about three months ago he was transferred to a place upon the Geological Survey.

Friday's Cash Sale

TABLE CLOTHS. Double damask made in Ireland. Six beautiful patterns, daisy, forget-me-not, blackberry, wild rose, holly, shamrock, fern. There was good fortune in the find, for the goods are a third cheaper than even we can sell them regularly. The tariff fence bars out a repetition of the bargain. Each cloth is beautifully bordered and is full bleached with a satin finish. Pure linen, no cotton admixtures, no tow, no trash. And the fairest of fair prices to pay. This is the kind of linen selling we delight in—it broadens and strengthens the linen reputation of our store. It's an instance of the rightness of things. But the rightest rightness is in the price.

2 Yards.	2 1/2 Yards.	3 Yards.
$1 25.	$2 00.	$2 50.

DRESS PATTERNS. Twenty styles, all-wool Foreign Novelty Goods, new this season, good quality, chic and charming. No hap-hazard selecting brought them here. Rigid scrutiny rejected everything that was not choicest of the choice. Some plain goods in the lot. Pattern of eight yards, $1 95. Every woman can afford a new gown at such a price.

VELVETS. Full rich colorings in an even heavy pile make their beauty—blue, brown, red, green. The woman who makes every quarter count in buying can appreciate what it is to get silk velvet 20 inches wide for 48c. a yard.
